I was driving down 20th Ave behind the blue nissan when I saw it swerving a bit I slowed down noticing they ~~where~~ slowly spinning, My attemp to avoid contact with them by slowing down and going around them but with another car on the other side of the road i failed and hit the nissan on the rear end after I drove to the side to asses the situation. These streets should be tended to a lot more with these conditions and drivers should really be cautious of their speed and how they drive.
