I was driving eastbound on 20th in the righthand lane, just passed Hwy 9, when a sebring (grey) slammed on his breaks in the left lane causing the jeep wrangler (olive green) behind him to swerve, in effort to avoid collision with the sebring, and crash into the drivers side of my car. The sebring proceeded to speed off headed eastbound on 20th, leaving Bo (the driver of the wrangler) and myself to clean up the mess.

Damage on my car is from the back 1/4 of my driver door to the back panel of my car and rear driver side tire.

While driving east on 20th a grey chrysler sebring slammed on his breaks in the left lane. I tried to avoid hitting him by quickly changing lanes to the right. At this time I scrapped the side of a grey Audi. The sebring that caused the accident then quickly took off after I put my hands up to stop.
