was on Hwy 9 heading towards Snohomish at the frontier village intersection. The left hand turn lane to my left received a green turn signal, and my brain cross wired that and read it as my light being green. I proceeded ahead at a slow speed, but unfortunately colided with the car ahead of me in the oncoming lane which was turning left. We both pulled out of the intersection, me straight ahead and them to the left and then the shoulder. The passenger of the other car came to me, I ascertained through her that no one had been injured and provided her my name and insurance information. We then parted ways momentarily until I was able to rendezvous with her at the 76 Gas station where we waited for the officer.

On 6/13/2014 I was on Highway 9 waiting at red light to turn left on Hwy 204. When light turned green and then started turning onto Hwy 204 when a maroon Dodge heading south on Hwy 9 came through the intersection and hit the back passenger quarter panel on the car. We pulled off on the shoulder of Hwy 204 and called police and exchanged information with the other driver.
