Art in Public Places: (Art Rotation)

There is new art hanging in the public buildings around town:

Lake Stevens City Hall is hosting Kathrine Critchfield .

Carol VanLoo has several works hanging in the Lake Stevens Library above the non-fiction.

The Lake Stevens Police Department has the artwork of Molly McMasters.

Music on the Lake:

The monies that were received for MotL during the summer of 2012 are to stay in the Art Foundation account.

It has been determined that these funds can be used for scholarships, art rotations and for next year's MotL.

We have approached the Army for information on the Army's band for one evening next year. They will require the same 6-week reservation schedule, as did the Navy band.

The Lake Stevens Chamber of Commerce has expressed an interest in running the Farmer's Market.

We will support the Chamber in this endeavor, as it would be a win/win for all concerned.

The City of Lake Stevens is looking into a new banner for 20th street and is willing to include MotL on the signage.

Jan is looking into costs and will let us know about what funds we will need.

As always the great guys from Public Works will be responsible for hanging this banner.

We would like to add a sign up at Frontier Village; Jan will talk to the property management that handles the property for permission.

The Iron Man competition may conflict with the Thursday, the week before Aquafest by setting up on that Thursday. We will have to wait and see.

We would like to review bands for next year in January if possible.

Chalk it Up

No Aquafest meeting and no report at this time.

Arts Commission

The City of Lake Stevens is advertising for citizens to serve on various boards in the City including The Lake Stevens Arts Commission.

Those Commissioners that wish to continue serving on the board need to let Norma know now.

It was suggested that we could allow one student from the Lake Stevens High School serve for one year.

New Business:

Local dentist Jason Bourne would like to sponsor an outdoor movie night for the City approached us.

Dr. Bourne would like this to be on a weekend in August and show “G” rated movies.

We were asked to help organize permits and any vendors that would be interested.

We would like to get this organized in time to put on the new banner.

It was suggested that at the next meeting we take a look at the scholarship application to be more specific on what criteria would be needed for the submission of art.

Meeting adjourned: 7:30 pm

Next meeting: December 12, 2012, 6:30 pm, Community Center, 1808 Main Street, Lake Stevens

Respectfully submitted by Commissioner Forbis
