

Design Review Board

Request for Board Members Open Until Filled

The City of Lake Stevens is pleased to announce that applications are being accepted for Design Review Board.

The Lake Stevens City Council adopted code amendments establishing a Design Review Board comprised of five volunteer members. Members review design proposals for structures and site features in specific zones and determine if the requested action is consistent with the adopted design criteria. Meetings will be on an “as-needed” basis and will usually be in the evenings.

The City Council appoints members for a term of three years. To be eligible to serve, you must live in Lake Stevens and have an interest in urban design.

Applicants should have:

- Knowledge of, or interest in, architecture, urban design and the development process;
- Ability to evaluate projects based on the City’s design guidelines;
- Ability to listen and communicate effectively at public meetings;
- Passion for design and community development; and
- Ability to work well with others under pressure. Prior experience with community or neighborhood groups is a plus.

Applications can be obtained online at www.lakestevenswa.gov or picked up at City Hall, 1812 Main Street, Lake Stevens. The deadline for applying is May 29, 2015.
