

Catherine Creek Park

Park Description: Catherine Creek Park is an 8-acre community park that the City leases from the Lake Stevens School District. The park is mostly a "natural" park with a network of unpaved trails that provide public access to Catherine Creek. The park also has picnic facilities in a grassy meadow. A unique feature of this park is a scenic, wooded 18-hole disc golf course that attracts players from around the region.
