

Eagle Ridge Park

Park Description: Eagle Ridge Park is a 28-acre park, named for the eagle's nest next to Lundeen Parkway. The park includes extensive passive nature trails that wind through the wetland headwaters of Hubert and Eagle Creeks. A portion of the site houses the Lake Stevens Senior Center, as well as the new Eagle Ridge Community Garden. The City has completed a master plan for the park that includes converting an existing barn into an interpretive center and incorporating an outdoor classroom to emphasize the natural setting.

Park Features:

Community Garden	Senior Center
Public Trails	Wildlife Viewing

Location: North of Lundeen Parkway between SR-9 and Soper Hill Road

Hours: 8:00 a.m. till dusk
