

LAKE STEVENS ARTS COMMISSION (LSAC)

Meeting Minutes: February 8, 2017

Visitor Information Center

10020 Lundein Parkway, LakeStevens

CALL TO ORDER: 6:35 P.M.

COMMISSIONERS PRESENT: Gisela Hinchcliffe, Holly Forbis, Kristen Hunt,

COMMISSIONERS ABSENT: Steve Apodaca, Linda Ehmen, Bridgette Scott

OTHERS PRESENT: Jim Haugen, Parks & Recreation Coordinator, Todd Welch, City Councilmember, Terry Myer, Chamber of Commerce, Irtiyah Schall, Artist,

Excused Absence: Due to lack of a quorum no action was taken.

Approval of Minutes: Due to lack of a quorum no action was taken

Guest Business:

Terry Myer from the Lake Stevens Chamber of Commerce provided an update on the Quarterly Art Fair and the Art in Public Places programs. Two to three artists are contacting her per day regarding the Quarterly Art Fair. New Artist Shane Robertson is scheduled to display his work in March, April and May. A proposed exhibit by the Artist Guild was discussed. Also discussed was a “Paint & Sip” event tentatively scheduled for Haggen’s.

Subcommittee Reports:

Music on the Lake: There is a meeting scheduled with the Community Development director, Russ Wright, on February 9. Commissioner Forbis said that Last Leaf Productions is proposing Shakespeare’s Comedy of Errors or Henry V Part III.

Scholarships: Commissioner Hinchcliffe is coordinating with Kim LaFortune at the high school for the scholarship program. “Paint & Sip” was discussed as a possible fundraiser to help support the scholarships.

Time Capsule: Commissioner Hinchcliffe said both the Historical Society and the Lake Stevens Library have been contacted and are supportive of the Time Capsule.

New Events: The subcommittee has not met. Possible events including decorating the docks and Christmas Light judging.

Parks Coordinator Haugen said the Skate Board Park is scheduled to open in August.

Adjourn: There being no further discussion items, the meeting adjourned at 7:15 p.m.

Bridget Scott, Secretary